Dear Marc,

WOW! It is hard to imagine a form of entertainment that would appeal to and totally engage a varied group of 200 people, including seventy five 17-year old boys. However, your Magic and Mastermind act did just that on Sunday evening at the Brunswick School's Class of 2007 Parents-Son Dinner. You immediately captivated both the boys and their parents with up-close mentalism and magic acts, and your stage show at the end of the evening brought down the house! My son came home from school yesterday and said that all the boys were still talking about your performance. Each time someone recounted one of your acts, the story always ended the same way: "how'd he do that??!!"

Marc, you are not only a talented magician and mentalist but you have an endearing personality to which people are naturally drawn. This is now the second time I've seen you perform and you are equally as good whether in front of 30 people or 200. I would recommend you wholeheartedly to anyone who wants to make an event extra special, extra fun, and extra dynamic. I look forward to calling you again whenever I need an entertainer who is so widely appealing to all ages. Bravo!

Sincerely,

Valerie Doyle
